

The FAA R&D Flight Program continues to support varying R&D projects that require these exceptions during operational flights. All conditions and reasons for this exemption remain the same. Therefore I request an extension of Exemption 1200A.